The Justice Conference – Justice & Missions

The Justice Conference is a two-day annual event to promote dialogue around justice related issues such as human trafficking, slavery, poverty, HIV/AIDS, and human rights, featuring internationally acclaimed speakers, hundreds of humanitarian organizations, and dozens of pre-conference workshops.

Video: Interns will work alongside the Art Director in the process of video production. Responsibilities include support with lighting, audio, logistics, on-set production support, post-production support, post-production scripting and editing.

Graphic Design: Interns will assist with creation of flyers, brochures, print pieces etc. following brand guidelines. Interns will develop cohesive design solutions for both print and web applications as well as use production techniques such as color correcting and preparing files for print.

Writing: Interns will work with the Creative Director in developing copy, scripting for videos, and managing the content and quality of the website and print media pieces. This is a writing-intensive position and candidates should possess strong proofreading, writing and editing backgrounds.

Research: Interns will be responsible for compiling statistics, facts and background information that will be implemented into the website and print pieces.

Social Media: Interns will be responsible for contributing to and evaluating social media channels, reinforcing strategies already in place and identifying areas of improvement to The Justice Conference team.

Event Planning: Interns will be involved in the daily event coordinating tasks as well as marketing and promotion implementation.
