PRAYER FOR OUR CITIES
(From Isaiah 55)

Lord, we call upon you while you are near.

Abundantly pardon us, though your thoughts and ways are higher than ours. We labor for what does not satisfy. Help us forsake our devotion to the idols of stuff and status.

You offer us more, that our souls might live. Make us truer versions of ourselves. Make us instruments of your word and purpose like the rain and the snow come down from heaven and water the earth, bringing new growth.

To our neighbors who do not know you, make our lives evidence of your compassion so they will run to you.

You invite the thirsty to come to the waters. Let us be like the cool water of our river on a hot, dry day.

Bring healing in this place. Help us to see those who suffer from all forms of poverty and brokenness here. Instead of thorns, let the juniper and cypress grow as an everlasting sign of your glory.

Let us go out in joy and be led in peace. Let us see the mountains join in song and the trees clap their hands.

Amen.
